

Bike Patrol Unit

Bicycles are used by designated operations personnel to promote positive contact with citizens during patrol activities, special events, and routine call responses. Officers assigned to bicycle patrols receive extensive training in fundamental and advanced riding techniques. Special equipment and athletically designed uniforms are issued to officers participating in this unit. Bicycles are an integral part of the department's community policing strategy and provide a highly visible, approachable image of police officers.

Source URL (retrieved on Wed, May 16th 3:17am): <http://www.cityofevans.org/police/bike-patrol-unit>