

Important Guidelines and Regulation Information

Whether you are starting your first small business, building a new subdivision, or bringing new commercial development into Evans, we do have some guidelines you need to follow. We're ready at your convenience to meet with you and give you feedback on your ideas and plans, and help you to accomplish your goals. We know your time is valuable, and that time is money during construction and development. Our guarantee to you is to make the process as quick and painless as we can. Our guidelines and regulations for development were designed to provide high quality opportunities to live and work in Evans.
